Royal Insurance Company.
FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £'00,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 93 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1862 shews that "all the property of the Co. amounting to £840,070 is real and substantial property:" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

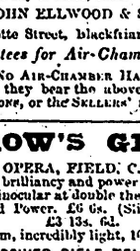
BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.

Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.



"As a sample of English clock work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have ever been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfectness or carefully adjusted mechanism."—Times, June 11 1862.

"A triumph of ingenuity."—Telegraph March 11 1862.

"A more splendid and exquisitely finished piece of mechanism we have never seen." Standard, June 17 1862.

"Some of them are of great beauty and if the English watch-trade only follow up with the same spirit and success this first attempt to compete with foreigners in decorative watches, there seems to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands."—Times, June 23, 1862.

"Ranged around the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an inspection."—Illustrated London News, November 8, 1862.

"Nil falsi audeam, nil veri non audeam dicere."
CICERO.

THE DEPARTURE OF OUR LEGISLATORS.

We congratulate the country that Congress closes at last. Happy are we to think that the period of nervous apprehension is passed, and that we can now inhale the Argentine atmosphere unalloyed and free from that lingering dread which all who love the River Plate, and knew the power of Congress, so keenly endured.

People of a querulous disposition say: what, after all, has Congress done? What good will the country reap from the third session of the National Legislature? What benefit will the country derive from the three hundred thousand silver dollars which the session has cost? But these interrogatories are only put for the purpose of diverting the public mind from the negative blessings accomplished.

We will not now argue the point as to whether Congress is a necessary evil, or an inherent good, but animated with the praiseworthy desire to see the Republic prosper, we insist that the sooner the Senators and Deputies return to their distant homes the better for all parties.

Discretion, they say, is the best part of valor, but in the River Plate it seems to us to be the mainspring of legislation, and the peculiar discretion of our legislators in doing no positive good lest it result in harm, is so manifest, that we begin to believe legislation is an occult science unknown to the masses. Had our Congressmen been less discreet, or even had the session survived the passing season, who can say if the same cool deliberation would have predominated in the hot weather.

The afflicting revolution in the Banda Oriental has afforded no pretence to our deputies to meddle in our neighbor's affairs, and the alarming attitude of Spain respecting Peru has, owing to the cool sagacity of the Senators, entangled us in no guano speculation.

Martin Garcia, is it not still our own, and has it been endangered by any intemperate legislation? Rather has not the prolixity of debates on other matters diverted democratic passion and saved for us this inestimable Island?

The Indians, it will be said, are troublesome, but can Congress be expected to tame a lot of wild savages who have no representation in the deputies? People must be a little more reasonable. They talk about the Indians until, verily, a stranger would believe that the barbarians had their wigwams in the Plaza Victoria. Congress has suffered more than most people imagine from this savage bugbear, and Calfucurá, if he was in town, would admit that the rejection of the Pauñero scheme has done more to renew our relations with the savages than the passing of a code of laws which would take the "Nacion Argentina" more than a month to print.

The state of the interior is peaceable and prosperous: can the enemies of Congress say that this is nothing? Can it be urged that the absence of fellow to kick up a row is the cause of the Argentine temple of Janus being shut? Rather, is it not the awe which our legislature has inspired in the breast of the poorest gaucho? and if the country is showing signs of prosperity, does it not strike every one that Congress has been indirectly instrumental in this by inculcating in the minds of the people the necessity of "looking out for number one!"

People will be growling and complaining as long as the world lasts, and there are not wanting parties who charge our legislators with wasting both the public time and money, but we can prove the contrary.

Congress has complete and absolute power over our tariff laws. And what new export or import tax has it imposed? Has it not, on the contrary, yielding to the importunities of a thirsty portion of Argentine humanity abolished the invidious tax on ice? Is this nothing?

Again, who is there in this wide, unpeopled country, that has come before the house in a suppliant posture, and asked for an obelisk over departed worth, or a pension to support existing merit, and has been refused?

Great, indeed, is the debt which the country owes to the homeward-bound legislators: they might have plunged the country into a war, but they did not. They might have added ten per cent. more to our import and export duties, but they have not. They might have been bamboozled into spending ten thousand silver dollars in purchasing seeds, but they cautiously discountenanced too much faith in green crops; in fact, they might have done a thousand things which they have avoided: and it is more in the omission to perpetrate bad acts, than in the commission of good ones, that the retrospect is most pleasing.

We bid the retreating legislators a cordial farewell. It is more the task of the soothsayer than the journalist, to say how the country will manage during the long legislative recess which is now at hand. There are some who, blind to the importance of Congress, may be so uncharitable as to suggest that the only drag to our national prosperity is Congress. But we cannot coincide with them: legislative assemblies are, no doubt, expensive luxuries, but it is foolish to economise in such matters, and if every session of Congress passes off as innocently as the third, we may well, indeed, congratulate the members of so harmless a body on the conclusion of their lilliputian duties.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The greatest novelty in town is the new camp police force, which is at present quartered in the stable-yard of the Government-house. The men look really very well in their new uniform, and, we have no doubt, will have a very formidable appearance in the country districts. We are well pleased to see the Government at last doing something for the camp, and hope the new police force will realize all the good which is promised. Certain it is, that the present police force in the camp is a disgrace to the province. It is difficult to imagine how people can respect officers of the law who go about the country with an old handkerchief for a hat, and a piece of old horse hide for a pair of boots. Why, the very appearance of these fellows is sufficient to make a man snub their authority: the new police force is, therefore, a most necessary improvement, and, we hope, will have a salutary effect.

The meeting of the friends of the Sanatory Commission will be held this evening, at the United States' Legation, at three o'clock, to receive the report. We are happy to say, that as far as we can learn, the sum collected is very respectable.

To-night our readers must not forget that "God save the Queen" will be sung in Colon. Nearly all the leading English male singers in town will muster on the stage. The benefit to-night will be for the Socorro Church. We hope the house will be well filled.

An experienced resident foreigner gives it as his opinion that now we may look out for repeated Indian invasions, and that the principal reason why the invasions during the last few years have been so insignificant, is the great drought which has been experienced in the pampas. When we suffer from a 'seca' in the near partidos, the open camps of the Indians are in a frightful state. Now, however, that the seasons have been favorable and the water abundant, the Indians encounter no difficulty in swarming on our frontier line and enriching themselves by carrying off cattle and mares.

A friend of ours suggests that the people in Buenos Ayres ought to present Mr. Pestalardo with some token of esteem for the very liberal and able manner in which he directed the operatic entertainments in this city for so many years. We fully agree with our friend in the suggestion, and think that the music-loving public of Buenos Ayres would willingly subscribe a sufficient sum to present Mr. Pestalardo with a service of plate.

Our colleague, the "Tribuna," states that the newest thing in town is the Mitre Gin. We have not tried it, but suppose it must be good. As for cigars, we can only say that some of the Mitre cigars which we tried were horrid cabbage leaves. The best cigars in town are those of our friend the German, Mr. Rathje, No. 58, Calle San Martin.

A friend recently arrived from Entre Rios states that the camps are in splendid condition. Sheep are very dear, and cannot be got under four patacons. The English exodus from the Banda Oriental has temporarily ceased, and Gualeguaychú is getting dull. The current price of good land in Entre Rios is ten thousand patacons per league. The number of English about Gualeguaychú has within the last year increased so that there is a good opening for an English grocery store in that town.

Our colleague, the "Pueblo," has embraced the Patagonia gold question. We notified our readers more than a fortnight ago of the fact that Patagonian samples of gold were exhibited at this office. Our friend Erin, who was down there, laughed at the matter, and assured us that the Patagonian gold is a hoax. As the "Pueblo" has taken the matter up, we hope to hear more of it.

There seems now no longer any doubt of the Brazilian army having invaded the Banda Oriental. Private advices received yesterday by the steamer state that the Oriental Government has received notice of the event, but as it is apparently a very friendly invasion, most people in Buenos Ayres regard it as a blessing, which will terminate the present unhappy war going on in that country. Flores, we hear, is on the very best terms with the Brazilian officers. It is probable that when the Brazilian Generals get into the country Flores will join them to put down the Blancos. Any solution is better than the present state of things.

The first meeting of the Argentine Racing Society will take place on Sunday. The races will commence punctually at 12 o'clock. Several good horses will run.

The paper money projects are still in discussion. Several of the deputies are of opinion that the public lands, if sold, should be disposed of by auction, and that the Government should put no price at all on them, but let them go for whatever they will fetch. There is a deal of sound sense in this, as all government lands are not in an equally good situation, nor of the same quality. Some are much more valuable than others, therefore a uniform price is unfair. Whatever they are intrinsically worth they are sure to fetch if put up at auction without reserve.

Congress has finally determined to abolish the Buenos Ayres Dragoons. We are at a loss to know the reason. The camp Commissaries, which were at first suppressed, have been re-established.

A heavy consignment of tobacco has just arrived from Paraguay. We are told by a merchant that tobacco is actually selling in Asuncion three reals dearer than in Buenos Ayres.

We perceive that a man named Bernardo Parajon is summoned to appear to answer the charge of manufacturing false paper dollars. It is not probable that he will come and appear.

The Government calls for proposals to finish the iron work in the deposit warehouses at the Plaza Once de September; all proposals must be sent in before Thursday, the 13th inst.

We notice that the Circulo Literario still continues receiving books for its library. This society has now a very respectable library, and strange to say the majority of the books are English works. Alberdi said that every Argentine should, ought, and must learn English. It would seem as if his advice had been adopted by the majority of people in town.

Senator Frias retires from Congress, his term of office having expired. It is our pleasing duty to remark that Senator Frias's parliamentary career is marked by every trait which adorns a true patriot. We regret sincerely that so unswerving a man should retire to private life: his loss in the House will be keenly felt.

The subscription in Montevideo in behalf of the Danish widows and orphans amounts to $820 patacons.

The Peruvian Congress has decreed a vote of thanks to Mr. Patrick Lynch for his services rendered that republic.

The large gold medal for Leandro Gomez is to be seen in the shop window of Mr. Vidale, calle Florida. The tienda is called the Ville de Londres.

The Esmeralda mails will be due to-morrow from Corrientes, which are looked for anxiously, as it is expected we shall hear from Paraguay.

To-morrow is fixed for the trial of Domingo Lopez charged with the murder of D. Sebastiano Pizaro, who was missing some two years from his estancia at Loberia, and his remains afterwards found buried near the prisoner's rancho.

The new Spanish Minister was received yesterday in all state at the Government House: the President was attended by his Ministers and staff, and the 2nd batt. of the line paid the customary salute: the Chevalier Creuz was honored in the evening with a serenade from his countrymen.

The Cambers of the Province assembled yesterday to elect a Senator for Buenos Ayres to the National Congress, when Sor. Felix Frias was returned by forty votes, his opponent, Dr. Tejedor, having but three.

It is said that the Brazilian army got orders to invade Banda Oriental, on the 17th ult.; if so we shall soon hear of operations.

THE PRESIDENT'S WHITE BAIT DINNER.

On Wednesday evening a grand banquet was given at President Mitre's private residence to the members of Congress, previous to the closing of the session and return of the several Senators and Deputies to their distant homes in the Provinces. Half-past six was the appointed hour, but it was seven o'clock when President Mitre took his seat at the head of the long table, on which covers were laid for 74 persons. Madame Mitre and her two daughters were the only ladies present.

The first courses passed off in silence, there being a certain feeling of restraint, but the viands were first-rate having been supplied by the Hotel de Provence. The dessert and wines were also superior, but not a single toast or speech was given, and the affair was in this respect decidedly very original, although perhaps it was so previously arranged, on some new principle of court etiquette.

At half-past nine the bell rang for coffee, and all the guests proceeded noiselessly to the drawing-room where tea and coffee were served round. After some casual conversation, the party broke up at 10:30, taking their adieux of the President and his family. We did our best to discover why there was no toasting, but suppose that the guests considered they had spoken enough in Congress during the last five months.

SISTERS OF CHARITY.

These Christian heroines, the most admirable of conventual fraternities, are daily extending their labors in the River Plate, and enlisting native ladies among their ranks. The first colony of French sisters arrived in Montevideo in November 1856 to take charge of the hospital, and when yellow-fever broke out, a fresh contingent came to the aid of suffering humanity. Subsequently Buenos Ayres became anxious to secure such valuable philanthropists, and at the present time, our Hospitals, Foundling house, and Lunatic Asylum are entirely under their management, while new colonies of sisters have been extended to Rosário, Paraña, Santa Fé and Cordoba, with hospitals and schools in each of these cities. The parent house is still at Montevideo, where the superioress and council reside, directing the various establishments in the River Plate, which count over 100 sisters. In that city beside the Hospital de Caridad, Lunatic Asylum, and a female school of 200 children now managed by the nuns, the order is erecting a handsome new convent in calle San José attached to which will be a chapel for the public convenience. On to-morrow, 8th inst. will be received three Novices and ten Postulants, whose names are as follows: Novices—Maria Candelaria, Swiss; Maria Nieve Lamy, Belgian; Maria Luisa Arvallo, Montevidean, Postulants—Josefina Maidana, Cordobese; Isabel Viain, Spanish; Victoria Lamy, Belgian; Isabel Grimao, Cordobese; Gregoria Cortes, Cordobese; Josefa Cardoso, Cordobese; Carmen Noailles, Buenos Ayrean.

We may observe that to this same Order of Charity belong the estimable ladies of the Irish Convent of Mercy in this city, who render such good service in the education of the daughters of our Irish residents, and gratuitously educate 300 native poor children.

THE SAN JUAN MINING COMPANY.

THE DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

Our readers are aware that Mr. Rickard is at present in this city, and that the object of his visit is to arrive at some definite arrangement with the Buenos Ayrean shareholders in the present difficult circumstances of the company. The report before us which has been sent round to the parties interested gives not only a clear and eloquent exposition of the state of affairs, but shews that the director's conduct far from being censurable was highly deserving of praise. In fact we have positive evidence that but for Mr. Rickard's disbursement of his own private resources the enterprize must have long since been declared bankrupt. We must condense the voluminous report in a few lines:

On the 28th of January, 1864, the Directory of San Juan caused their secretary to write to the secretary in B. Ayres, announcing a third call on the shares: such announcement was duly made, but the B. Ayrean secretary sent no reply to the Directory of San Juan. On the 28th of March the San Juan secretary again wrote, expressing surprise that he had got no answer, and urging the transmission of funds, so as not to paralyze the works. The shareholders of San Juan having paid up the third call, the secretary there wrote a third time on March 23d, but none of these letters received any reply. At last in the beginning of May came a private letter from the Mauá Bank, authorizing Mr. Rickard to draw to the amount of $5,000 ftes.

In the meantime, the San Juan directors and shareholders grew nervous about the enterprize, saying that their friends in B. Ayres did not pay up and it was impossible to go on much longer. On March 25th the President (Sarmiento) wrote to Mr. Rickard in Hilario to this effect, as there was only a sum of $3,000 in hand, and the payments necessary at the end of the month would exceed $8,000. Here was a cul-de-sac! No way could be devised to raise funds, and bankruptcy was inevitable. At last Governor Sarmiento on March 27th begged of Rickard to come to the rescue, and the latter then offered to buy up all the shares held in San Juan at par and on credit till March 1865. This was gladly accepted by all parties, including D. Domingo Oro, attorney for the Buenos Ayrean shareholders; subsequently the 120 shares held by Government were negotiated in a similar manner, making Mr. Rickard possessor of 572 shares out of the total number 1100. So far the proceeding was clear, and Mr. Rickard, without taking any unfair advantage of the crisis, became at once manager, directory, &c.; whereas if he had allowed bankruptcy to ensue, and the materials to be sold by auction, he might have made a very profitable though less honorable business.

The company being virtually dissolved, or identified in Mr. Rickard, the latter set about remedying the chief evil which checked the progress of previous operations, viz.: a statute against working mines or speculating in metals. He purchased, out of his private funds, eighty-five mining lots, advanced money to some indigent proprietors, and bought ores everywhere, some mules being laden in the distant province of Mendoza with metal for the Hilario works. During two months he met all the expenses of the works single-handed, and it was not till June 21st that he received $6,000 from the Mauá Bank, for the company, at which date the enterprise was indebted to him about a thousand doubloons (£3,300). All this proves that he has unlimited faith in the enterprise, that he understands it thoroughly, and has its success at heart.

When we study the number and nature of the immense works which he has all but concluded, in a short space of time, and examine the actual condition of affairs at Hilario, the picture is gratifying. There are 100 cajones or 300 tons of silver metals in the deposit, and their value in pure silver is estimated at $35,000 ftes., but this treasure cannot be refined until the works are completed. The cold or casting metals are ready, as also the argentiferous leads; the refining furnace is finished, but cannot be worked until the hydraulic wheels are up, and for this purpose a canal has been made, from the river of San Juan, three and a half miles long and 8 yards wide: this work was begun last February and completed in August. The foundation of the hydraulic wheels is composed of ten blocks of granite, each eight tons in weight and procured at immense cost and labor. We readily believe the assertion that the works of Hilario surpass anything of the kind elsewhere in this continent.

But in order to keep working so splendid an establishment it is necessary to count on an unfailing supply of metals, which the lazy and indigent native miners cannot guarantee, as their expenses are greater than would be under proper management, and while they only gain $4 or $5 per cajon, it is demonstrated that a joint stock company would realize $130. Mr. Rickard therefore insists on remodelling the company in two particulars: 1st to augment the capital, 2nd to form a statute authorizing the working of mines and purchase of ores. He proposes to get up a new company in London, to which he will sell his mines, and become only a shareholder, offering to allot to the B. Ayrean shareholders a corresponding amount of stock in the new concern, or (if they prefer) he will purchase the present shares at par, paying six per cent interest from the date of payment of first call till December 1865, when he will pay cash, offering as security a chattel mortgage on the works at Hilario.

The balance of accounts made by Mr. Bindon, on the part of the Buenos Ayrean share-holders shews that there is a residue in favor of Mr. Rickard which exceeds $20,000 B. up to August 18th, since which date the Co, is still more indebted for disbursements made by him averaging $3000 B. per month: it is also shewn that a further sum of $15,000 will be requisite to complete the works.

Under these circumstances we should feel (if a shareholder) inclined to accept the proposal of an allotment of proportionate stock in the new Co., confident that Mr. Rickard will bring it to be the most successful enterprise in South America, for he is a man who understands his profession well, and would not embark so largely if he were not sure to succeed.

The meeting will be held in a few days, and we hope the arrangement already accepted by most of the original opposers will be carried out, and that Mr. Rickard will return to San Juan not to dissolve this great national enterprise but to give it new vigor and speedily complete the works of Hilario.

IMPORTANT SALVAGE DECISION.

By order of Dr. Don Mariano G. Pinedo, Judge of Commerce, Mr. William Warren, master of the American pilotboat Filton, is notified to appear, in consequence of the arrangement entered into on the 16th of August last, between his counsellor, Dr. Don Manuel Obarios and Don Antonio Dodero, representing Don Nicolas Corrado and Don Juan Garcia, for the better knowledge of which, said arrangement is transcribed at foot, which arrangement has been approved of by his worship, in his decree pronounced in the case of the barque Respigadera, on the 24th of September of the present year, and which is as follows, viz.:—In virtue of the dispute as to what should be awarded for salvage, the parties abovementioned met and agreed that it should be one-third of the nett proceeds of whatever should be saved, in consequence of which they requested his worship so to declare it, and as the total proceeds of the goods saved amounted to one hundred and seventy-nine thousand six hundred and ninety-six dollars, which is deposited in the bank, one hundred and thirteen thousand one hundred and thirty-one dollars five reales are to be accorded to Corrado; and the rest of said deposit, amounting to sixteen thousand five hundred and seventy-five dollars three reales, are accorded to Warren, which amount, added to the forty thousand dollars which he has already received is fifty-six thousand five hundred and seventy-five dollars and three reales, which correspond to him as one-third; and that each party shall defray his own costs. At the same time it was notified that each party could make use of his rights, to collect from Don Ignacio Leon the nine thousand five hundred and one dollars which exist in his hands, of which amount one-third belongs to Warren and the remainder to Corrado. Which act was signed before his Worship, and in presence of the undersigned, by the parties abovementioned, which is notified by means of this advertisement, in virtue of the decree and for the knowledge of whom it may concern. SALVADORES.

MONTEVIDEO.

The 'Reforma' of the 4th instant announces that Lieut. Plá, son of the ex-President, recently taken prisoner in a fight with General Suarez, has been sentenced by Government court-martial to be shot for having deserted to the rebels, about a month ago: his brother was killed the other day among the rebels who fell at Piedras. Gen. Saa received despatches to October 1st, informing him that the Colorados, after their defeat of the 10th, 23rd, and 28th ult, conveyed their wounded to Minas, and that several scattered bands passed the Puntas de Sauce, on the night of the 29th, in the direction of Pando, driving before them all the cattle they could steal. We hear the rebels are greatly demoralized, and every day suffer wholesale desertions from the individuals whom they impress on their route. On the 30th ult. no fewer than nineteen poor fellows, reduced to the greatest misery, passed over to Saá, who incorporated them in his forces. The tone of the Blanco troops is said to be improving, and 30 volunteers have joined Justo Saavedra's new batalion "Ituzaingo."

Despatches from Paysandú give details of the victory announced several days ago in the 'Standard,' gained by Col. Rodriguez over 400 rebels commanded by Maximo Perez, at the Rincon Gallinas. The latter left on the field 65 dead, a great number of wounded, 10 prisoners and a quantity of horses, and were pursued eight leagues: on the next day (18th) no fewer than 90 fellows passed over to the Government and were pardoned. On the 27th, Leandro Gomez issued an order of the day, encouraging the heroic garrison of Paysandú, and adverting to the clothes, armament &c,, marked with the Imperial crown, which Flores received from the Brazilians. Letters of the 29th ult. state that the Brazilians have commenced stealing cattle by wholesale along the Uruguay; the estancia of a Spaniard named Argentó being among those sacked, and Leandro Gomez informs Government that he is about to commence hostilities against the Brazilian gunboats for presuming to ascend the Arroyo San Francisco, and river Queguay. By latest accounts Servando Gomez with the main army was pushing forward towards Tala and Toros to hem in Flores between two rivers, but he proceeded slowly owing to the infirm state of Col. Rodriguez who is not yet dead.

The report of 8,000 Brazilian troops crossing the frontier is contradicted, but 200 filibusters of Santana's band are prowling about there. It is said that on the 16th ult. General Urquiza had a private conference with an agent from Paraguay, at the estancia of Mrs. Romero, on the Gená. On the 26th ult. an officer and 6 men of the rebels passed over to the garrison of Paysandú.

The Capt. of the Port of Montevideo advertises having found a chain and anchor, requesting the owner to apply for same.

We have received the first numbers of a little paper called 'Unitá Italiena;' written in very pretty and correct Tuscan, but we augur it a short life. It will hardly serve the political situation by preaching hostility to Paraguay; it is subversive of morality by retailing some scandalous anecdotes about Jesuits and Cardinals, and finally if its materials were the best in the world it seems very dear at 14$ mpn (45$ mpc) per month. Besides there is another better Italian journal 'Il Mercantile' in Montevideo.

On Tuesday took place the ceremony of laying the foundation-stone of San Francisco: the President and Mme. Aguirre acting as sponsors.

There was a rumor on 'Change to the effect that specie is going in the packet. We know not how exact this may be, but it is pretty generally believed that parties who have remittances to make to Rio will ship gold. Specie is extremely firm and does not seem to be influenced by what is going on in the Chambers.

In Exchange we heard of ten thousand pounds sterling being done at 49¼, payable on the eighth. Several brokers insist that there has been little done, but we have it on the very best authority that at least £110,000 has been drawn up to the present. We hear of new drawers by this packet.

Paper money continues easy, notwithstanding the near approach of shearing, but gold is in demand. An important sale of Bolivianos was done the other day, which we have not noticed: fifteen thousand Bolivian whole dollars at 21.2 rls. per oz., and fifty thousand Bolivian half dollars at 20.4 per oz.

The Anglo-French claims have been amortized at 53½ per cent. We feel bound to call attention to the scrupulous exactness of the Montevidean Government in its payments, notwithstanding the distressing war which is going on. No matter what people may say about the Montevidean Government, all must admit that in money matters it has acted with the strictest honor. CHARTERS.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUÁ AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artizans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood

Rams—Rams—Rams.

The undersigned, in calling attention to his large and superior stock of Rams and Breeding Sheep, begs to inform his Friends in the Camp that he has on hands a splendid collection of animals, from Three Hundred to Five Thousand Dollars, m/c., and is confident that each in its class will compete with anything in the province.

In the "Rambouillet type" will be found some fine specimens of the pure blood, besides crossings from the "Merino," possessing the size, shape, and length of staple for which this class is so much admired.

In the "Negrettes" he has also some beautiful animals of pure blood, as likewise the "Negretto" drawn from the "fine Merino," a "Cria" remarkable for compact shape and close heavy wool.

In addition to the above he wishes to draw especial attention to his celebrated Argentine breed, between the "Rambouillet" and "Negretto Ewe," and which, after seven years' experience, he can fully recommend as combining size and shape with length and weight of wool—qualities so anxiously looked for by all experienced sheep-farmers, and which have given so much satisfaction to those who have already purchased of this class. In buying the above in half, three-quarter, and pure blood, already acclimatized, there is an immense advantage, as Rams reared in this country are not so delicate and withstand the winter better than imported animals, besides being sold much cheaper, and only requiring ordinary care.

He can likewise supply the above classes in Ewes, either picked or by the hundred, and wishes to remark that all have been in prime condition throughout the past summer.
